- d) This policy will be reviewed annually or when necessary to ensure it remains relevant and current.

13. GAMING OPERATIONS

All persons who play gaming machines in any of the Club's premises do so subject to the following Gaming Machine Playing Conditions which shall be the terms and conditions of play. The decision of the Club as expressed by its officers and/or employees as to the interpretation of these By-Laws shall be final.

By participating in gaming machine play in the Club you agree to abide by these conditions. You should read them carefully before playing any gaming machine. Do not play any gaming machine if you do not understand and accept the Conditions below:

- a) No patron is required to participate. Any playing of machines is at your sole option, discretion and risk.
- b) Gaming machines provide information about their particular games and winning combinations. The player should not play any gaming machine unless it is understood how to play it and the combinations that provide a prize.
- c) Player information brochures located in the gaming room provide information about the general nature of gaming machines. These should be read before commencing gaming machine play.
- d) Gaming machine play involves the risk of financial loss. The player should set a budget before commencing gaming machine play and stick to it. It is the players responsibility to decide how much time and money the player wishes to spend.
- e) It is illegal for gaming machines to be played by anyone under the age of 18 years.
- f) No cheques will be cashed in the Club.
- g) Only Australian legal tender shall be used to play gaming machines and only in the denominations marked on each particular machine. Damaged or unclean notes must not be inserted into gaming machines.
- h) Patrons must not play any machine that the Club has marked or indicated as withdrawn from play. The Club will not pay any prize won on any such machine.
- i) Club employees and former employees, and contractors and suppliers to the Club (and their officers and staff) must observe all relevant restrictions imposed by the Club from time to time regarding such persons. Without limiting those general words, an employee must not play machines whilst on duty nor during meal or rest periods or other breaks from duty. Prizes won by an employee or former employee, or by contractor or supplier (or one of their officers or staff) when playing a machine in breach of this condition, will not be awarded.
- j) The Club may refuse any person the right to play or continue to play a gaming machine in its discretion at any time without giving any reason.
- k) A patron may play a maximum of two poker machines only. The patron must play each machine consecutively and both machines must be played throughout.
- l) Patrons who play blackjack machines are not permitted to engage in card counting or utilize any external software applications for advantage. Patrons who are believed to be card counting or using external software for advantage will be asked to leave the Club.
- m) When asked by the Club a player must provide their full name and address plus details of the basis on which they are on the Club's premises, with such documentary proof as the Club reasonably requires. The Club may prevent you from playing or continuing to play any gaming machine if you do not satisfactorily comply with this requirement.

- n) The law requires all gaming machine players to provide to the Club their full name, address and date of birth as well as identifying documentation such as a drivers licence. Prizewinners may be required to provide additional identifying information. The law requires the Club to retain the players information for a period of time and to provide certain information to government agencies.
- o) For a monetary prize, the Club will pay the prizewinner an amount equal to but not exceeding the value of the credits accumulated by the prizewinner from playing a gaming machine.
- p) Prizes are not payable to any person who is not, either a financial member, provisional member, temporary member, honorary member or a bona fide guest of a member and on the premises in compliance with all requirements of the law and the Club's Constitution and playing the machine in the reasonable company of the member concerned.
- q) Prizes are not payable to any person who has signed a self-exclusion agreement with the Club while that self-exclusion agreement is currently in force.
- r) Prizes or accumulated credits of $5000 and over will be paid by crossed cheque made payable to the prizewinner, or may be paid by electronic funds transfer to an account nominated by the prizewinner where that is requested by the prizewinner and agreed to by the Club.
- s) Monetary prizes and stored or accumulated credits will be paid within 48 hours of a request for payment by the prizewinner. The Club in its discretion may pay part of a prize in advance of paying the balance.
- t) Where a prize is awarded in a non-monetary form, there is no option to take the prize in any other non-monetary form except as the Club may have specified in writing.
- u) A claimed prize will not be paid where it arises as a result of a machine malfunction or simultaneously with a machine malfunction.
- v) A prize will not be paid unless the winning combination is seen by an authorised staff member of the Club and verified for payment according to the Club's standard procedure for paying prizes.
- w) A prize will not be paid if it is won before the opening time of the Club, or after the announced closing time of the Club.
- x) Patrons must immediately report to a Club staff member any gaming machine that appears to be malfunctioning, and must stop playing that machine.
- y) You must not tilt, rock, move, damage or interfere with a machine or do anything calculated or likely to interfere with the normal operation of a machine.
- z) Payment will be withheld if the circumstances show any sign of interference with a gaming machine which may be unlawful or in breach of these Conditions or which is otherwise improper.
- aa) It is an offence under section 80 of the Gaming Machines Act 2001 for a person:
  - i. To have in possession a device made or adapted, or intended by the person to be used, for interfering with the normal operation of a gaming machine in the Club; or
  - ii. To do anything calculated, or likely to interfere with the normal operation of a gaming machine in the Club; or
  - iii. To do anything calculated to render a gaming machine in the Club incapable, even temporarily, of producing a winning combination.
  - iv. The maximum penalty for an offence is currently $11,000, 12 months imprisonment or both. The Club will report to the Police any person that it believes may be committing any such offence or other offences under the Gaming Machines Act 2001 or the Gaming Machines Regulation 2010 (NSW).

- bb) Patrons may reserve a gaming machine for a maximum of 3 minutes in any hour. However the Club may decide in its discretion not to allow a machine reservation to continue. The Club may in its discretion also allow a player to reserve a gaming machine for a longer period than 3 minutes under the loyalty program. The Club has no liability if a player reserves a machine which is then played by another player.
- cc) The Club may reserve any number of machines for a particular promotion or activity. If you are not entitled to play a machine under any such particular arrangement then you are not entitled to claim any prize won on the machine whilst it is so reserved.
- dd) Patrons must not loiter in the gaming machine area if you are not playing a gaming machine or accompanying another person who is playing a gaming machine.
- ee) Any credits on a machine which do not belong to the person playing the machine must not be played or redeemed and must be reported to the Duty Manager.
- ff) A person in the club shall not:
  - i. ask or require any other person to give or lend him or her any money;
  - ii. give money or lend money to any other person; or
  - iii. take any actions to recover monies claimed from or owed by any other person.
- gg) A patron is not permitted to purchase another patron's jackpot, payout or double up, whether for full or other value.
- hh) A patron is not permitted to enlist others to play poker machines upon their behalf.
- ii) A member is not permitted to insert their card into a poker machine which is being played by another person.
- jj) If patrons leave the gaming machine area, patrons should take all belongings with them. The Club shall not be responsible for any property, including money, left by players in or near an unattended gaming machine.
- kk) If the Club offers any machine which is operated as part of an inter-club linked gaming system then progressive jackpots (and other similar prizes) are payable by the operator of the linked gaming system alone and the Club has no liability to pay and gives no representation or warranty concerning any such jackpot prize or other benefit offered by that operator.
- ll) The Club may immediately withdraw a machine or any progressive system from play if the Club suspects a malfunction.
- mm) Only the actual winner of a prize can receive payment of a prize. They must do so in person on the Club premises and provide such evidence of identity as the Club may require. The Club may in its absolute discretion waive this condition.
- nn) If the Club in good faith pays or awards a prize to someone who appears to be or to duly represent the prizewinner then to the maximum extent permitted by law that payment or award fully discharges the club from all liability in relation to the prize.
- oo) Any gaming machine credits or tickets issued by the Club are not transferable to another person and is only redeemable by the prizewinner at the Club. The Club may refuse to redeem the credits or tickets if the prizewinner does not provide documentary proof of identity as required by the Club.

- pp) By claiming a prize, a prizewinner consents to use of their name and likeness by the Club for marketing purposes without additional compensation. A prizewinner may ask the Club in writing to refrain from publishing anything that discloses their identity in which case the Club may still publish general information about the prize won but shall not publish any information that may identify the prizewinner.
- qq) For information about privacy concerns, ask staff about the Club's Privacy Policy.
- rr) The Club offers self-exclusion for gaming machine players who have a gambling problem. Speak to Management about how to self-exclude.
- ss) If patrons feel they have a problem with gambling, they should contact ClubSafe, who provide the Club's problem gambling counselling service. ClubSafe can assist with problem gambling counselling, self-exclusion, information and referral. ClubSafe brochures are available in the club.
- tt) If patrons are dissatisfied with any matters to do with gaming machines, please ask the Duty Manager about the Club's complaint handling procedures.
- uu) A member who breaches any of these Conditions is liable to disciplinary action by the Club in addition to any disqualification from claiming a prize and any other lawful penalty.
- vv) The Club may withdraw or amend any of these Conditions at any time in its absolute discretion. Any change becomes operative immediately it is displayed anywhere in the Club.

14. RESPONSIBLE CONDUCT OF GAMING

- a) The Club has accepted its obligation to deliver, advertise and promote gambling services in a lawful and responsible manner, having regard to the potential for harm that may be caused by gambling and the community concerns about the conduct of gambling.
- b) The Club's mission is to be achieved through a variety of measures and strategies which include the following:
